Themes of the Week Descriptions

PK Spirit Week! - What better way to jump-start summer fun than with PK Spirit week! Join us this week as we dive right in to all the fun summer activities. Sing-offs, relay races, group cheers, creating group flags and more! At the end of the week, groups will get to showcase their group cheer & flag, as they take part at the end of the week's major special.

Ahoy Matey! - Pirate ships, lost treasure, Jack Sparrow & more! Bring your best mates and jump aboard the PK Pirate ship as we scavenge the seven seas for the lost treasure at Friday's end-of-the-week carnival. How many jewels will you collect??

PK World Travellers - Dust off your PK Passports because this week we're all going on a trip around the globe! On Friday this week, our staff & campers will get to explore all different flavours and sites around the world, taking part in a number of different country events. Get your PK Passports stamped at each station to collect a special treat at the end of the week! Come dressed in your favourite tourist gear on Friday!

It's a Jungle Out There - Marvin has gone on safari and has gotten himself lost out in the jungle. We'll need everyone's help on Friday to help track down Marvin and guide him back to headquarters. On Friday please come dressed in your best safari attire!

Guess WHO? - This week is going to be full of mystery! Someone around the camp has taken it upon themselves to take off with all of our candy. With the help of all of our camp detectives and our staff spies, we will work together in catching the mystery thief and get back our treats!

Mad Hatter's Adventure - To go through the rabbit hole or not? Will you follow the sign to the right or to the left?? One way might lead you to the mad hatter's teapot, one might lead you to a dead end. Either way, you choose, it should lead you to the Mad Hatters end of the week carnival - it might just take you a few extra turns to get there!

Let's Rock - How has another summer already come to an end? We're ending the summer on a high note - with our end-of-the-year talent show! Please note; parents and guardians will receive information the week of camp informing you if we are allowed to have guests attend the talent show.
